> CHARTER. OF THE

OAHU CEMETERY ASSOCIATION." WHEREAS, ON THE 13th DAY OF JUNE. A. D. 1859, Asher B. Bates did file in the office of the er of the Interior of the Hawaiian Islands, a petition in nce with the act entitled "An act relating to tions," approved on the 17th day of April, A. D. 1856, asking for a charter of incorporation for himself, his associates, and successors, under the designation of the "Only Cemetry Asso-

Be it known, therefore, to all whom it may concern, that in accordance with a Resolution of the King in Privy Council, bearing date June 16th, 1859, and in virtue of the authority in me vested by the act aforesaid, I have constituted, and by these vested by the act atoresaid, I have constituted, and by these presents do constitute B. F. Snow, R. C. Wyllie, S. C. Damon, G. P. Judd, Henry Robinson, A. J. Cartwright, G. M. Robertson, J. T. Waterhouse, William Ladd, C. Brewer 2d, John Patry, J. I. Dowsett, James Robinson, John Dominis, Lorrin Andrews, John Meck, W. H. Johnson, G. J. Emmes, Wm. Beckley, Joseph Booth, Thomas Cummins, C. W. Vincent, Henry Sea, C. N. Sieben, Ludge, Indext. George Word, Lorent Seith, R. H. Nicholson, Jules Dudoit, George Wood, Lowel Smith, R. H. Metcalf, John B, Asher B. Bates, C. C. Harris, J. Mott Smith, Hugh McIntyre, C. H. Lewers, A. P. Everet omas Spencer, Francis Spencer, Archibald Cleghorn, George Clark, their associates and successors, a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of the "Oahu Cemetery Ass ciation," and the said corporators are hereby authorized within ninety days after the date of this Charter of Incorporation, to meet at such time and place as they, or a majority of them may agree, and elect seven Trustees of their number to manage the concerns of the Corporation, who shall be divided into three classes by lot; those in the first class, to hold their office one year; those in the second class, two years, and their office one third class, three years; and annually, or the first election, a meeting of the corporators shall be her for the election of Trustees to fill the places of those whose time of office shall have

ARTICLE 2. The corporation to be former under this Charter. shall be regarded as duly organised on the day when Truste's shall be elected, as aforesaid, and shall have and possess the power to have succession, by its corporate name, perp tually to sue and be sued, complain and defend, in any Court of Law or Equity; to make and use a common seal, and after the same at pleasure; to hold, purchase and convey such real and per-sonal estate as the purposes of the Corporation shall require. not exceeding the amount limited by this Charter; to such subordinate officers and agents as the business of the cor-poration shall require, and to allow them a suitable compensation; to make by-laws, not inconsistent with any existing law of the kingdom, for the management and transfer of its property, and the regulation of its affairs. The affairs and property the Association shall be managed by the Trustees, who shall elect from among their number a President and Vice President, and shall also appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the board of Trustees, and the Trustees may require the Trusteer to give security for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

Astricts 3. The Association hereby incorporated may take, by purchase, or devise, or gift, and hold within the Island of occupied exclusively for a Cemetery for the burial of the dead, and such land, or such parts thereof, as may from time to time be required for that purpose, shall be surveyed, and subdivided into lots or plats of such size as the Trustees may direct, with such avenues, alleys and walks as the Trustees deem proper, such avenues, theys and walks as the Ir sices deem proper, and a map, or maps of such surveys, with the lots, avenues and paths duly numbered thereon, shall be filed in the office of the Registrar of Conveyances; and after filing such map, the Trusters may sell and convey the lots or plats designated on such map, upon such terms as shall be agreed, and subject to such conditions and restrictions, to be inserted in or annexed to the conveyances, as the Trusters may prescribe. But in case the said corporation shall acquire any real estate by purchase or otherwise, not suitable or required for the burial of the dead, the Board of Trusters are authorized to sell and convey chase or otherwise, not suitable or required for the burial of the dead, the Board of Trustees are authorized to sell and convey the same, and apply the proceeds thereof for the embeldishment of a Cemetry, or other purpose connected with the burial of the dead. The conveyances to be executed under the cammon scal of the Association, and signed by the President, and Vice-President, and the Trustees to the Association.

ARTICLE 4. The annual election for Trustees to supply the place of those whose term of office expires, shall be holden on the first Monday in August of each year, at such hour and place as the Trustees shall direct, at which election shall be chosen such number of Trustees as will supply the places of those whose Trusties shall direct, at which election shall be chosen such number of Trustees as will supply the places of those whose term expires. The Trustees chosen at any election subsequent to the first, shall hold their places for three years, and until others shall be chosen to succeed them. The election shall be by ballot, and every person of full age who shall be proprietor of a lot or plat in the Cemetery of the Association, containing not less than one hundred square feet of land, or if there be more than one proprietor of a lot or plat, then such one of the proprietors as the majority of joint proprietors shall designate to represent such lot or plat, may either in person or by groxy, give one vote for each plat or lot of the dimensions aforesaid, and the persons receiving a majority of all the votes given at such election shall be Trustees to succeed those whose term of office expires. But in all elections after the first, the Trustees And the Trustees shall have power to fill any vacancy in their number, occurring during the period for which they hold their office. Public notice of the time and place of the annual elec-tions shall be given in such manner as the By-Laws of the Cor-reports of their doings, and of the management and condition of the property and concerns of the Association. If the annual election shall, for any reason, not be held on the day prescribed, the Trustees shall have power to appoint another day, not more than sixty days thereafter, and shall give public notice of the time and place, at which time the election may be held with like effect as if held on the day prescribed. The offices of the Trustees chosen at such time to expire at the same time as if they had been chosen at the day prescribed by this Charter. ARTICLE 6 All lots or plats of ground designated on the maps filed as aforesaid, and numbered as separate lots by the incorporation, shall be indivisible, but may be held an lowned in un-divided shares. One-half at least of the proceeds of all salest of lots or plats shall be first appropriated to the payment of the purchase money of the land acquired by the Association, until the whole of the purchase money shall be paid, and the residue thereof to preserving, improving, and embellishing the said Cem-etery grounds, and the avenues and road leading thereto, and etery grounds, and the avenues and roads leading thereto, and to defraying the incidental experses of the Cemetery establishment. And after the payment of the purchase money, and the debts contracted therefor, and for surveying and laying out the land, the proceeds of all future sales shall be applied to the improvement, embeldishment and preservation of such Cometery, and for incidental expenses, and to no other purpose or object.

ARTICLE 7. The Secretary of the said Association for the time being shall be the public officer thereof, on shom service of all being shall be the public officer thereof, on shom service of all
